

Remembering our Polish Fallen Heroes

Polish Cultural Center

Saturday July 1, 2017

6:00 pm

You're invited to an evening in remembrance of our Polish Fallen Heroes.

Michael Reagan's hand drawn portraits of Sixty Six Polish fallen heroes who fought in the Iraq and Afghanistan war against terrorism were presented to the families in Warsaw, Poland on December 21, 2015.

Key Note Speakers:

Michael Reagan, Fallen Heroes Project, Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient.

Lieutenant Colonel Karol Sobczyk, Military Attaché Polish Embassy, Washington D.C.

Bob Michalak, Life member of the Polish Home Association, U.S. Army Veteran.

Michael Reagan has sketched more than 4,800 portraits honoring those who have given the ultimate sacrifice in the war against terrorism.

